Loan Purpose – Cash-Out Refinance (Fannie Mae Section: requirements are for Fannie Mae DU loans with note dates on or prior to 3.31.23)- cont. below

Cash-Out Refinance

- Maximum cash-out is $500,000 which includes
  - The payoff of any unsecured debt
  - Unseasoned liens
  - Debt not secured by the subject property
  - Non-purchase money seconds secured by the property, and
  - Any cash on hand

For Fannie Mae DU loans only:

- Fannie Mae Student Loan Cash-Out Refinances are ineligible.
- Borrowers may not have multiple cash-out transactions within the prior 12 months on the same property. Closing Disclosures (CDs), or other supporting documentation, from all subject property refinances in the prior 12 months are required to confirm the previous transactions were no cash-out. The subject cash-out transaction is excluded if the borrower is receiving no cash in hand, or is receiving less than the incidental limit allowed by the Agency. Loans with LTV/CLTVs of 75% or less are excluded from this requirement.

Notes:

- Removing or adding borrowers will not make the transaction eligible.
- When a HELOC is paid through closing, the current transaction is only considered cash out for this requirement if there were any draws in the last 12 months.
- Loan may be defined as cash-out by the Agency and be excluded from this requirement.
- The property must have been purchased or acquired by at least one borrower for no less than 6 months prior to the disbursement date (measured from the settlement date of the existing mortgage to the disbursement date of the new mortgage)
  - If the property was owned prior to closing by a limited liability corporation (LLC) that is majority-owned or controlled by the borrower(s), the time it was held by the LLC may be counted towards meeting the borrower's six-month ownership requirement. Title must be transferred from the LLC or LP into the borrower's name prior to the note date.
  - There is no waiting period if the borrower acquired the property through an inheritance or was legally awarded the property (divorce, separation, or dissolution of a domestic partnership), or
  - Delayed financing requirements are met.

For Freddie Mac LPA loans only:

- Cash-Out Refinance Mortgage Used to Pay off a First Lien Mortgage
  - When proceeds of a cash-out refinance mortgage are used to pay off a first lien mortgage, the first lien being refinanced must be seasoned for at least 12 months (i.e., at least 12 months must have passed between the note date of the mortgage being refinanced and the note date of the cash-out refinance mortgage), as documented in the mortgage loan file (e.g., on the credit report or title commitment).
  - The requirement that the mortgage being refinanced must be seasoned for at least 12 months does not apply when:
    - The cash-out refinance is a special purpose loan cash-out refinance that meets the requirements in Section 4301.6 of the Freddie Mac Seller's Guide, or
    - The first lien mortgage being refinanced is a Home Equity Line of Credit (HELOC)
- Cash-Out Refinance Mortgage on a Property Owned Free and Clear
  - A mortgage placed on a property previously owned free and clear by the borrower is considered a cash-out refinance.
  - At least one borrower must have been on the title to the subject property for at least six months prior to the Note Date, except as specified below:
    - For cases in which title to the property is held by a limited liability company (LLC) or limited partnership (LP), the time the property was titled in the name of the LLC or LP may be included in the six-month requirement provided:

Loan Purpose – Cash-Out Refinance (Fannie Mae Section: requirements are for Fannie Mae DU loans with note dates on or prior to 3.31.23)

- At least one borrower must have been the majority owner or had control of the LLC or LP since the date the property was acquired by the LLC or LP, and
- Title must be transferred from the LLC or LP into the borrower's name prior to the note date.
- If none of the borrowers have been on the title to the subject property for at least six months prior to the note date of the cash-out refinance, the following requirements must be met:
  - At least one borrower on the refinance inherited or was legally awarded the subject property (for example, in the case of divorce, separation or dissolution of a domestic partnership)
  - OR, all of the following requirements are met for borrowers seeking delayed financing:
- Delayed financing is acceptable according to Agency guidelines.
  - The executed HUD-1 Settlement/Closing Disclosure Statement from the purchase transaction must reflect that no financing secured by the subject property was used to purchase the subject property
  - The preliminary title report for the refinance transaction must reflect the Borrower as the owner of the subject property and must reflect that there are no liens on the property
  - The source of funds used to purchase the subject property must be fully documented
  - If funds were borrowed to purchase the subject property:
    - Cash-out proceeds must be used to pay off or pay down the borrowed funds, as reflected on the Settlement/Closing Disclosure Statement for the refinance transaction
    - Additional cash-out is permitted only when all borrowed funds are paid in full, and
    - The payment on any remaining outstanding balance of the borrowed funds must be included in the DTI ratio per Section 5401.2
  - The amount of the cash-out refinance Mortgage must not exceed the sum of the original purchase price and related Closing Costs, Financing Costs and Prepays/Escrows as documented by the HUD-1 Settlement/Closing Disclosure Statement for the purchase transaction, less any gift funds used to purchase the subject property.
  - There must have been no affiliation or relationship between the buyer and seller of the purchase transaction
- The cash-out refinance Mortgage must comply with the applicable LTV/TLTV/HTLTV ratio limits and all other Agency requirements
- All refinance transactions must meet Continuity of Obligation requirements
